IMPORTANT VISA INFORMATION

Which type of Ukrainian Visa do I need?

IMPORTANT VISA INFORMATION

Visa requirements for entry into Ukraine vary from country to country. Citizens of Andorra, Canada, the European Union (except Bulgaria & Romania), Iceland, Liechtenstein, Monaco, Norway, San Marino, Switzerland, the USA & Japan do not require a visa for stays of 90 days or less. Other nationalities do require a visa. To obtain your visa you will need to submit the following documents to the Ukrainian Consulate.

Please note: ITE is not responsible for providing any documentation you may require in order to obtain your visa.

Remember to give yourself enough time to obtain your visa; depending upon your nationality this can take up to 8 weeks.

Checklist of requirements for VISA support document:

1. A clear colour scanned copy of your passport
2. Visa support order form (see page 05 - 08)

How your VISA support is delivered to you:

Once we have your invitation it will be emailed to you; however, some Ukrainian Consulates require the original visa support document when you lodge your visa application. You will need to check with them if they will accept emailed copies or need the original; if they want the original it will have to be couriered to you from Kyiv. You will have to pay this courier fee.

Only once you have this document you can then apply for your visa. Ukrainian visas are issued only for the dates mentioned on your invitation (which should match those on your application form). You do not have the flexibility to travel on dates outside of the dates specified on your invitation/visa. To allow some flexibility we therefore suggest that you apply for extended entry/exit dates to allow longer than you actually need for your visit.

This regulation establishes visa-free entry to Ukraine for up to 90 days.

ALL OTHER NATIONALITIES NEED A VISA; please use this form if you require a visa for a period longer than 90 days.

TOURS

If you have free days in Kyiv we can book a variety of tours that will acquaint you with the city and its rich history.

1. Kyivo-Pecherskaya Lavra

On the high hills of the right bank of Dnepr River stands the magnificent Kyivo-Pecherskaya Lavra, topped with gilded domes. According to legend, Andrew the Apostle, while preaching the Word of God in the Scythian Land, blessed the hilly bank of the Dnepr River and said to his disciples: On these hills great city and many churches in glorification of Holy God will be. The history of Kyivo-Pecherskaya Lavra is closely connected to the adjacent Far and Near Caves.

2. Andreevsky Spusk

Andreevsky Spusk is one of the oldest streets in Kyiv. In ancient days it was the shortest way from the Upper Town to Podol, or the Lower Town, where merchants and craftspeople used to live. Nowadays this steep and meandering street is a traditional place for arranging concerts, art festivals and city holidays. In Andreevsky Spusk there are many interesting picture galleries and souvenir stores.

3. St. Sofia Cathedral

St. Sofia Cathedral is a world famous historical and architectural monument of the first half of the 11th century. The name of the cathedral comes from the Greek word sofia, which means wisdom. Built in the times of Yaroslav Mudry, the cathedral served as a social, political and cultural center of Kyiv Rus, where foreign ambassadors were received, chronicles were recorded and the first Russian library, founded by Yaroslav Mudry himself, functioned.

4. Golden Gate

Golden Gate is the unique fortification that was constructed in 1017-1024 and served as a main gala entrance to Kyiv. The Great tower with Annunciation Church delighted contemporaries and terrified enemies with its inaccessibility. The name of the Gate in Kyiv copies the famous entrance to Constantinople: Kyiv prince Yaroslav Mudry wanted to underline that his country was as powerful as the Byzantine Empire

BOOKING CONDITIONS (1/3)

These conditions and the information in this brochure, or web site, and relevant inserts form the basis of an agreement between you and the person(s) on whose behalf you book ("the client") and Corporate Travel Management Solutions Ltd., also known as CTMS ("the Company").

Please note that the terms of this agreement vary dependent upon whether the Client purchases "travel" or "other travel arrangements". "Travel" is a combination of at least 2 of travel (excluding transfers), accommodation or other component which forms a significant part of arrangements purchased by the Client from the Company, provided that the combination is booked at the same time and full payment is made direct to the Company. Anything else will constitute "other travel arrangements".

1. When requesting a booking to be confirmed the client must sign the Booking form accepting these conditions and the other information given to him by the Company to form part of the agreement.

2. No contract exists between the Company and the Client until the Company's confirmation accepting the Client's booking request has been dispatched to the Client or his travel agent. Confirmation will not take place until the Company can confirm all components in the clients requested itinerary. The Company reserves the right to offer suitable alternatives if any component of the Client's requested itinerary is not available. No variation of these conditions shall form part of any contract between the Company and the Client, unless confirmed in writing by the Company to the person signing the booking form. Any money paid by the client to a travel agent in respect of a booking with the Company and held by the agent in respect of a booking with the Company and held by the agent is held on behalf of the Client until the Company dispatches to the Client confirmation of his booking. Thereafter, any money held by the travel agent in respect of the booking is held on behalf of the Company.

3. The Booking form must be accompanied by full payment together with the administration charge (also referred to as booking fee or service fee). The administration fee is non-refundable.

4. (a) The Company reserves the right in any circumstances to cancel the Client's travel arrangements more than 4 weeks before departure, in which case the client shall be informed as soon as possible and shall be offered alternative arrangements, if available. The Company shall cancel the travel within 4 weeks of departure only for reasons beyond the control of the Company, or should the Company not receive from the Client the balance of the travel payments. Reasons beyond the control of the Company constitute Force Majeure events, which are defined as unusual and unforeseeable circumstances beyond the Company's control, the consequences of which could not be avoided even if all due care has been exercised, such as war, threat of war, riots, civil strike, industrial dispute, terrorist activities, natural and nuclear disaster, fire or adverse weather conditions or other similar events beyond the Company's control. Should travel arrangements be cancelled for any reason, including those above, the Company will not refund to the Client any monies paid by the Client to the Company, where the Company has had to pay its supplier and is unable to obtain a refund from them.

On occasion we may need to cancel your booking (such as due to a cancellation by our supplier). We will take reasonable steps to avoid having to cancel your booking. If we are to cancel your booking we will notify you and we will provide a full refund.

The Company will have no other legal liability whatsoever, and, in particular, no liability to compensate the Client for loss of opportunity to travel.

4 (b) This brochure, or web site, and relevant inserts were prepared many months in advance of your travel. As a result changes to travel arrangements are possible. First, the Company reserves the right to change any service, facility or price described in this brochure, or web site, and relevant inserts before the Client books. In this case the Client will be advised of relevant changes before his booking is accepted. Second, the Company reserves the right to change the Client's travel arrangements after the booking has been confirmed. A change may be "major" or "minor". A major change is a change of UK departure airport to one less convenient to the Client, a change of departure time by more than 12 hours (except a flight delay), or a change of accommodation to a lower grade than that booked. All other changes are minor. If there is a minor change to travel arrangements, the Company is under no obligation to notify the Client, nor to compensate the Client. However, in practice, the Company will endeavour to notify the Client of the change. If there is a major change to travel arrangements, the Client will be offered the choice of alternative arrangements, if available, or a full and prompt refund of all money paid. If the Client chooses the alternative arrangements and they are more expensive than the travel originally booked, the Client must pay the difference, but, if they are cheaper, the Client will receive an appropriate refund.

5. After acceptance of the booking, if the Client cancels his arrangements, or does not take the flight booked, or does not arrive at his hotel on the expected date, or does not pay the balance of the travel price by the prescribed time, the Company (or supplier) may cancel the booking whereupon the Client will be liable to pay to the Company (or supplier) cancellation charges in accordance with the following scale:

Period before departure within which written cancellation is received	Cancellation charges as % of total price
More than 50 days	10%
49-31 days	50%
Less than 30 days	100%

NB. Certain special fare air tickets and other services, such as hotel bookings during exhibition and other busy periods, are subject to different cancellation charges, in which case the Client will be informed at the time of booking, or it will be made clear in the brochure or web site. All cancellations from Clients must be sent in writing to the Company by recorded delivery and are only effective from the date of receipt.

6. If the Company consents in writing to a Client's request for any amendment of a confirmed booking, the following scale of alteration charges will apply:

Alteration made more than 50 days before	£25
49-31 days	10% of the total travel cost
30-15 days	25% of the total travel cost
14-1 day	50% of the total travel cost
Day of departure	100% of the total travel cost

NB. Certain special fare air tickets and other services, such as hotel bookings during exhibition and other busy periods, are subject to different cancellation charges, in which case the Client will be informed at the time of booking, or it will be made clear in the brochure or web site. All cancellations from Clients must be sent in writing to the Company by recorded delivery and are only effective from the date of receipt.

7. Sub-clauses (a) – (e) below apply in respect of travel. Sub-clauses (f) applies in respect of other travel arrangements.

7. (a) Subject to clauses 8. (c) and 8. (d) below where the Client does not suffer personal injury or death, the Company accepts liability should any part of the Travel arrangements which the Client books with the Company not be supplied as described, and not be of a standard considered reasonable for the country being visited, in such a case, the Company will pay the Client reasonable compensation.

7. (b) Subject to clauses 8. (c) and 8. (d) below where the Client suffers personal injury or death as a result of an activity forming part of the travel arrangements, the Company accepts limited responsibility.

7. (c) The Company's acceptances of liability in Clauses 7. (a) and 7. (b) do not apply where there has been no fault on the part of the Company or its suppliers and the cause of the deficient travel arrangements or death or personal injury is the Client's own fault, the actions of someone unconnected with the Client's travel arrangements or one which the Company or its suppliers could not have anticipated or avoided, even with the exercise of all due care. Further the Company's acceptance of liability is subject to assignment by the Client to the Company of all the Client's rights against any agent or supplier of the Company, or any sub-contractor to such agent or supplier, who is in any way responsible for the deficient travel arrangements or for the Client's death or personal injury.

7. (d) The Company's acceptance of liability to pay compensation pursuant to Clauses 7. (a) and 7. (b) is limited in accordance with international conventions governing air, sea, rail and road transport, copies of which are available for purchase through the International Civil Aviation Organisation on +44 (0)161 499 0023 or for download at <http://www.jus.uio.no/lm/air.carriage.unification.convention.montreal.1999/doc>. Additionally, the Company's products offered for sale are provided by carriers, hotel keepers, car hire companies and other parties who have their own booking conditions of carriage and business and over whom we may have no direct control. Their booking conditions may strictly limit the circumstances in which compensation is payable to you by them and you agree to be bound by their booking conditions. Copies of their booking conditions are available on request. Please allow at least 28 days for the provision of such information.

Our liability is limited to a maximum of twice the price of the services that you have booked attributable to the person affected even if the actual loss you suffer is more than that. This maximum applies where everything possible has gone wrong and you prove that no benefit or enjoyment has been obtained.

7. (e) Where the Client suffers any accidental illness, personal injury or death as a result of any activity not part of the travel arrangements made by the Company, the Company shall provide prompt advice and assistance. Where the personal injury, illness or death is the responsibility of a third party, excluding any supplier of any component part of the travel arrangements booked with the Company, the Company's advice and assistance will include financial assistance, at the Company's discretion and where appropriate, up to a maximum of £1,000 for the Client and any other person in the Client's party, to assist with the bringing of legal proceedings against such third party and you must repay this if you are successful in any claim against the person responsible. You must notify us in writing of the steps that you intend to take against the person responsible within 90 days of the relevant occurrence and obtain our written approval which will not be unreasonably withheld.

7. (f) As regards other travel arrangements, the Company acts only as a booking agent and has no liability whatsoever for any aspect of the arrangements made, and, in particular, has no liability for any death, personal injury or loss of whatever nature the Client may suffer.

8. Quotations, information and timetables provided by the Company to the Client are compiled in good faith, and are based on schedules, tariffs, prices, advance information and current exchange rates. Prices of travel are subject to change without notice until a confirmation as been issued by the Company to the Client. The prices of other travel arrangements, and the prices of travel after confirmation, are subject to change only in accordance with the terms of clause 9.

9. The price of other travel arrangements is subject to change at any time. The price of travel is subject to surcharges on the following items for increases in: transportation costs, e.g. fuel, scheduled airfares, and any other airline surcharges which are part of the contract between airlines (and their agents) and the Company. Government action such as increases in VAT or any other Government imposed increases, currency in relation to adverse exchange rate variations. In the case of favourable currency fluctuations the Company reserves the right to keep prices the same.

Where surcharges are applied, the Company will absorb an amount equivalent to 2% of the travel price which excludes any amendment charges. Only amounts in excess of 2% will be surcharged but where a surcharge is payable there will be an administration charge of £1 together with an amount to cover agent's commission. In no event will a surcharge be imposed within 10 days of departure.

If a surcharge on travel means paying more than 20% of the travel price the Client will be entitled to cancel his travel with a full refund of all money paid, except for any amendment charges and any money Company has paid out to its suppliers and has been unable to obtain a refund. Should the Client decide to cancel because of this, he must exercise his right to do so within 14 days from the issue date printed on the surcharge invoice. The exchange rates used to calculate prices are taken from www.xe.com and an internationally recognised 3% currency fluctuation fee is added to cover for any discrepancies in the rate of exchange between the time of quoting and the time of payment.

10. At the time of going to press a visa is required to enter certain countries featured by the Company. Confirmation of the Clients booking does not guarantee the granting of such a visa nor does the visa, if granted, guarantee entry to the country concerned. The grant of a visa and/or permission to enter a country are exclusively within the domain of the relevant authority and are not matters for which the Company has, or accepts, any contractual responsibilities or liabilities. It is the Client's responsibility to make the necessary applications and to comply with any rules or regulations governing entry to a relevant country. If a visa is not obtained by the Client, cancellation charges in accordance with the scale set out in Clause 5. will apply. In addition, the Company will not accept liability or consider a refund in cases when the Client is unable to travel due to an invalid or mislaid visa or passport.

11. As a condition of booking, it is the Client's responsibility to take out travel insurance and to make sure they have adequate cover.

12. As between the Client and airlines, railways, coach or shipping companies, the conditions of carriage of the relevant airline, railway, coach or shipping company will apply. Some of these conditions of carriage may limit or exclude liability and are often the subject of international agreements between countries. Copies of these conditions, where applicable, may be available for inspection at the offices of the Company or at the carrier concerned.

13. Flight times are provided by airlines and are subject to air traffic control measures. All methods of transportation are subject to weather conditions and the need for constant maintenance, and the ability of passengers to check in on time. While the vast majority of methods of transportation do depart on time, delays can occur and there is no guarantee that flights, ferries, ships, trains or coaches will depart at the time stated by the Company to the Client or on the ticket sent to the Client. The timings are estimates only and the Company does not have any liability to you for any delay which may arise. Where such delays arise the Company will not be liable for additional refreshments or appropriate meals, although in the cases of international flights the carrier, where possible, may provide refreshments and take further appropriate action. We suggest you check your travel insurance for possible cover for these events.

BOOKING CONDITIONS (3/3)

14. The information the Company provides is based on the information provided by the hotels, air, cruise and other travel products displayed in the brochure or on our web-site. For this reason the suppliers remain responsible for the correctness of this information. We therefore cannot guarantee that all the information is accurate and faultless, nor can we be held responsible for errors or inaccuracies in the supplied information. You should always check the provided information, before acting on the basis of the supplied information. Inclusion or offering for sale any of the products or services in this brochure, or web site does not constitute any endorsement or recommendation of such products or services by the Company. The Company and its suppliers hereby disclaim all warranties, terms and conditions with regard to this information, products and services including all applied warranties, and conditions, of suitable quality, fitness for purpose.

15. The Company reserves the right in its absolute discretion to terminate the travel arrangements of any Client whose behaviour is such that it is likely in the opinion of the Company to cause distress, damage, annoyance or danger to the employees or property of the Company or any third party.

If a Client is prevented from travelling on an aircraft, or staying in a hotel, because in the opinion of any person in authority at the airport or hotel (including, for example, the police, pilot, hotel manager, or security personnel) the Client appears by reason of intoxicating liquor, or misuse of drugs, or for any other reason, either to be unfit to travel or likely to cause discomfort or disturbance to other passengers or hotel guests, the Company responsibility for the Client's journey or travel, including any return flight, or other travel services arranged, thereupon ceases. Full cancellation charges then apply and no refunds will be given. Furthermore the Company is then under no obligation whatsoever for compensation or costs the Client may incur in respect of, or as a result of, alternative arrangements the Client may make.

16. No claim will be entertained by the Company arising from the loss or confiscation of items from the Client by any authority, whether arising from a breach of laws or regulations of the relevant country, or otherwise.

17. In the unlikely event that the client has complaints about the accommodation or any other service provided by the Company, this should be reported to the relevant supplier so that steps can be taken to resolve the matter locally. Further, written evidence of any complaint should be obtained in the resort. Failure to comply with these requirements will substantially affect the client's legal rights. In particular, any entitlement which the Client would otherwise have to compensation may be extinguished or reduced. On return home the Client should follow up the complaint within 28 days of arrival, stating clearly all relevant travel details to enable the Company to identify and fully respond to the Client's complaint. The Company will not consider any claims outside this period.

18. Although most travel, including travel to international destinations, is completed without incident, travel to certain destinations may involve greater risk than others. The Company urges passengers to review any travel prohibitions, warnings, announcements and advisories issued by The Foreign and Commonwealth Office Travel Advice Unit prior to booking travel to international destinations. Information on conditions in various countries and the level of risk associated with travel to particular international destinations can be found on the FCO's website currently located at <http://www.fco.gov.uk/travel>; or BBC Ceefax. Online medical advice for travelers can be found at the Department of Health's website currently located at <http://www.doh.gov.uk>. Otherwise, for medical advice regarding your journey, please contact your GP or the Department of Health. By offering for sale a particular international destination the Company does not represent or warrant that travel to such points is advisable or without risk and, is not liable for damages or losses that may result from travel to such destinations.

19. The Client agrees that in any action arising out of, or in connection with, this contract, English Law will govern and exclusive jurisdiction is conferred on English Courts, subject only to the permissible arbitration set out above.
